GUEST HOUSE WELCOMES FR. DAN CROSBY, OFM CAP., AS NEW CHAPLAIN

Lake Orion, MI – Guest House is honored to welcome Rev. Dan Crosby, OFM Cap., as its new Chaplain. A Capuchin Franciscan priest with more than six decades of ministry, Fr. Dan brings to Guest House a lifetime of wisdom, humility, and deep spiritual care.

Ordained in 1964 and a professed Capuchin since 1957, Fr. Dan has devoted his life to guiding others through faith, healing, and justice. His ministry spans Native American reservations, urban parishes, college campuses, and spiritual retreat centers. He continues to serve at the Solanus Casey Center in Detroit as confessor, spiritual director, and retreat master, where he remains a beloved presence in both the Capuchin community and the broader faithful.

Fr. Dan lived alongside Blessed Solanus Casey during the final year of the Blessed's life—an experience that continues to shape his gentle, grounded pastoral presence. A gifted preacher and spiritual guide, he has led retreats across North America and authored several acclaimed audio series on topics including the Eucharist, Gospel discipleship, mercy, and the life of Mary.

“We are profoundly grateful to welcome Fr. Dan into this role,” said Jeff Henrich, President and CEO of Guest House. “His pastoral wisdom and life of service are a blessing to all who encounter him.”

At Guest House, Fr. Dan will provide spiritual care to clients, staff, and alumni, guiding those in recovery through prayer, sacramental ministry, and compassionate accompaniment. His appointment reflects Guest House's commitment to holistic healing rooted in faith and tradition.
